

2nd Annual Gardening Conference
Wednesday, April 1, 2015
Ralph A. McMullen Center, Roscommon

Free to WISEWOMAN Gardeners

Join us as we celebrate the joys of gardening and learn new ways to start or improve your garden for the coming season. This day is dedicated to supporting our WISEWOMAN gardeners, so there is no cost to attend. But, you must register to confirm your spot.

Conference Registration

This includes all educational sessions, lunch and an afternoon refreshment break. If you are traveling a long distance and want to come up the night before (3/31/15), we have free overnight guest rooms available and breakfast on Wednesday is also free as long as you reserve your room before the conference. Please indicate that you need an overnight guest room on the conference registration. All rooms are double occupancy. If you have a roommate request, please list their name on your registration.

Conference Tracks

There will be 2 tracks offered during the day. Track 1 (called "Seedlings") is geared toward those who are new to gardening. Track 2 (called "Hardy Perennials") is geared those who have been growing for two or more years and are ready to learn some advanced gardening techniques.

If you have any questions, or need additional information on the conference, please contact Amy Stagg, 517-324-7310 or stagga@michigan.gov

Click Here to Register Online

The conference will be held at the Ralph A. MacMullen (RAM) Center located 5 miles west of I-75 off exit 244.

The RAM Center is located 1.5 miles east of US27 off the Military Road exit.

Highway signs on both expressways indicate which exit to take. The entrance to the facility is off N. Higgins Lake Drive on the south side of the road.

